Dear Reader:

May we ask a small favor? It will take only a minute and a half -- we've clocked it!

Recently we wrote to tell you that we will be happy to extend your INSTRUMENTS & CONTROL SYSTEMS service free when your present subscription expires. But to do so, we must conform to certain requirements.

The Publishers' Bureau asks that we list the business classification and position of every reader of the magazine.

Will you be good enough to pull out the handy form enclosed above, fill it in and mail it. Then everything will be in order -- we'll be able to live up to the rules; you'll be all set to receive INSTRUMENTS & CONTROL SYSTEMS without charge in the months ahead.

Your name and address are already on the form -- postage has been taken care of -- please mail it today.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Rimbach Jr.
